The OSPAR Rules of Procedure state:

OSPAR is committed to making as much information as possible publicly available, consistent with achieving other similarly important goals of public policy. The framework for this is set out in Article 9 of the OSPAR Convention.

In accordance with this, information presented in the OSPAR Assessment Portal, OSPAR Data Portal, and OSPAR website are licensed according to Creative Commons BY 4.0:

- Share - the material may be copied and redistributed in any medium or format;
- Adapt - the material can be remixed, transformed and built upon for any purpose, even commercially.

Under the following terms:

- Attribution - appropriate credit must be given (OSPAR Assessment Portal, <https://oap.ospar.org/en/> [add direct link to page]) provide a link to the license (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>), and indicate if changes were made. You may attribute the source in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the licensor endorses you or your use.

If you wish to grant permission under the CC license, your image(s) will be credited as “image courtesy of [name]”. Please state what name you would like to be used in the “Image(s) Description” field in the form below.

If you wish to grant permission to the OSPAR Commission to use your image(s), but do not wish for it to be licensed under the Creative Commons terms listed above, you can still do this by insisting your image is copyrighted in the form below. In this instance we will credit your image and add the © symbol which takes precedence over the CC license. Please state what name you would like to be used in the “Image(s) Description” field in the form below.
